Deputy Headteacher

An excellent opportunity to help shape our future!

Thongsley Fields is at the start of an exciting new journey after joining The CAM Academy Trust from September 2018, committed to improving the lives of the children in our care. We are looking for an inspirational person with a clear educational vision and motivational leadership skills to join our friendly and supportive team as our permanent Deputy Headteacher ideally from April 2019.

You will play a pivotal role in shaping the future direction and success of our school. We are therefore looking to appoint a forward thinking Deputy who has high expectations of themselves and others, leads by example and who can work effectively under their own initiative. You will be eternally positive in the face of challenge and have a pro-active attitude to driving our school forward, showing high regard and respect for all members of the community.

The successful candidate will be required to lead on significant areas of school development and to deputise for the Headteacher as needed. Together we will work on developing excellent teaching and creating a curriculum that truly prepares our children and the community for their future.

We can offer:

- A non-class based role with a teaching commitment as required
- A newly resourced environment
- A blank canvas and the freedom to innovate
- Happy, polite and enthusiastic pupils
- A great team of staff
- Support from the wider CAM Trust team
- A commitment to ongoing professional development
- Excellent career progression and future prospects
