

Inclusion Lead

An excellent opportunity to help shape our future!

Thongsley Fields is at the start of an exciting new journey after joining The CAM Academy Trust from September 2018, committed to improving the lives of the children in our care. We are now looking for an experienced teacher to join our Leadership Team, taking on the role of SENCo and developing our inclusive ethos and whole school provision. This is a challenging and important role requiring an excellent teacher keen to grow as a leader and part of a supportive and driven school community.

You will need a thorough understanding of how children learn and the challenges they face both academically and socially. The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the energy, ambition and creative thinking required to drive our inclusive provision and practice forward. Above all, you will need warmth, sensitivity and resilience in the face of challenge.

If you are that person, we would love to meet you, show you around and tell you more about our exciting plans for the future.

We can offer:

- A non-class based role
- A newly resourced environment
- A blank canvas and the freedom to innovate
- Happy, polite and enthusiastic pupils
- A great team of staff
- Support from the wider CAM Trust team
- A commitment to ongoing professional development
- Excellent career progression and future prospects
